

American University Honors Program Resolution
February 5, 2020

The Faculty Senate endorses the revisions to the AU Honors Program developed and ratified unanimously by the Senate Honors Advisory Committee (HAC) in 2019 following a self-study and external review. The Senate supports implementation of the revised and restructured program subject to input from the curriculum review process, including any forthcoming recommendations from the Senate's Undergraduate Curriculum Committee.