

DC PUBLIC LIBRARY & THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WASHINGTON, D.C. PRESENTS:

HOWARD THEATRE'S CRUCIAL ROLE IN THE COMMUNITY BEFORE & AFTER THE 1968 RIOTS

Panel discussion moderated by Author Dave Tevelin ("Death At The Howard"), featuring presentations by Sandra Butler-Truesdale, Chairperson, DC Legendary Musicians ("Honoring the Musicians Who Played at the Howard,"), Derek Hyra, Associate Professor, American University ("Race, Class, and Politics in the Cappuccino City,"), Greg Gaskins, Guitarist ("Performing at Howard Theatre,"), and Jimi Smooth, Musical Artist ("Backstage Memories of the Howard").

A SPECIAL PERFORMANCE BY GREG GASKINS & JIMI SMOOTH FOLLOWING THE PANEL DISCUSSION

This panel, adapted from the 44th Annual D.C. History Conference, Echo and Resonance: 1968, is presented in collaboration with the Historical Society of Washington, D.C.

Photo: Jimi Smooth, Greg Gaskins, Blair Ruble, and Dave Tevelin at the 2017 Annual Conference on Washington D.C. History

Photo Credit: Bruce Guthrie, reproduced with permission of the Historical Society of Washington, D.C.

Photo credit: <http://thehowardtheatre.com>

Tuesday, May 29
7 p.m.
WTD Meeting Room