

Helping LGBTQ Students Make Good Choices About College

Comparing Colleges Worksheet

Comparing Colleges Worksheet
For each college you're considering, mark whether the college has that resource available
College Name: _____
Are Sexual orientation and gender identity and expression included in the college non-discrimination policy?						Y
Does the college offer domestic partner benefits to all?						Y
Does the college have events with an LGBTQ focus or theme?						Y
Is there an LGBTQ student organization?						Y
Is there an LGBTQ campus office?						Y
Are there open LGBTQ faculty and staff?						Y
Are there LGBTQ housing options?						Y*
Are there courses in LGBTQ Studies?						Y
Is there a Major/Minor in LGBTQ Studies offered?						Y
Are there gay neighborhoods near the college campus?						Y
Does the campus feel welcoming to LGBTQ students?						Y
Have you met LGBTQ students?

Interested in American University?

Connect with a peer advisor through our Spectrum Project, our LGBTQ peer advising program open to current & prospective students. This way you can get a first hand look at LGBTQ life at AU and asks questions to a current student.

Request a Spectrum Advisor through our website or email us!

AU offers open gender housing options for both first year and returning students. First year students must opt-in through the Social Justice Living Learning Community in Roper Hall.*